Gameplay Programmer

C# Game developer, with an arsenal of tech experience and a thirst for learning.

As a critical thinker, I'll usually step back and think, what is our actual goal here, and is this the most practical way to accomplish this goal, or is this just our first idea? Are we choosing the technology for the solution we need, or are we bending our solution unnecessarily to fit our technology stack?

Technology tools include:

- C#
 - Unity 3D
 - JavaScript / Node.js
 - SQL / Mongo DB
 - VR (Virtual Reality)
 - SteamVR Plugin
 - Steamworks libraries
 - Git etc.
 - AR (Augmented Reality)
 - AR Kit / AR Core / AR Foundations
 - iOS and Android Development
 - Face Detection with Dlib
